

LX Scala - Lisbon

The first international Scala conference of southwest Europe to gather communities from Portugal , Spain and the UK.

---

8th / 9th April 2016

What

For the first time, Portugal hosts an event of this nature where experts in Scala join us from across Europe to discuss the present and future trends of the programming language.

With a limited audience of 100 people, LX Scala will gather professionals from Portugal, Spain and UK for this not to be missed event.

Why

A sponsorship will provide your brand with visibility in front of the most important groups of professionals in the technology sector.

Early registered attendees are coming from businesses all over Portugal, Spain and UK and have both national and international visibility

SPEAKERS

Noel Markhan
Eric Torreborre
Nick Stanchenko
Michael Barton
Noel Welsh
Renato Cavalcanti
Patrick Diloreto
Johann Egger

When

On Friday April 8, we will have a welcome dinner in which we will meet the speakers and exchange ideas among the community members.

On Saturday April 9th, the opening of the conference will commence at 09:00 and talks are scheduled until 21:00.

The event will conclude with party and rock concert at 23:00.

Where

It's a pleasure to have the support of Microsoft Portugal during our conference, who have made available its headquarters in Lisbon, located on the riverside of the Tagus River.

An awesome venue with outdoor spaces, theatre and a huge place to enjoy and share Scala.

Who

LX Scala will target professionals in this programming language from Portugal, Spain and UK.
